

FHCA 2050: Game Design Brainstorm

Due date: November 15th

ASSIGNMENT INFORMATION:

Now that you have brainstormed some ideas for a game design pitch, it is time to pick one and create one or several mood board(s).

What is a mood board? A mood board is an arrangement of images, materials, pieces of text, etc. intended to evoke or project a particular style or concept.

In this mood board, you will find existing media that incorporates concepts/ideas that you would like to incorporate into your potential video game.

If you are designing a video game, you are required to have the following:

- HUDs reference - 1 visual minimum
- UI reference - 1 visual minimum
- Environment reference - 3 visuals minimum
- Character reference (if you have characters) - 3 visuals minimum

If you are designing a new media art piece, you are required to have the following:

- Installation reference (how it will be set-up physically) - 3 visuals minimum
- Technology references - 2 visuals minimum
- Visuals on screen references - 2 visuals minimum
- UI references - 1 visual minimum

The following are optional visuals, but you are welcome to include more than what is listed:

- Main menu references
- Dialogue references (how the text is written, not necessarily UI)
- Particle effects references
